Bids have been invited for a number of schemes in the region, including a preparatory school extension in Derby, 3 commercial units in Peterborough and a housing refurbishment in Leicester.

£600K
Borras Construction is among the firms to recently secure a deal in the region, being chosen for a £600,000 school conversion in Kettering.

£2.2M
The Mill Road job for Bloor Homes will be worth £2.2 million and was joined by several other residential jobs in the region.

£53M
So far this year, the education sector has seen the most starts on site in the East Midlands. Some £53 million of educational projects worth less than £100m has started since 1 January, according to Glenigan.
